Identifiers-Long Island, New York

Designed to inform the profession about foreign language programs, methods, schedules, enrollments, and trends on Long Island, this report of a survey conducted in 1968 in 60 school districts, the Diocese of Brooklyn, and three parochial schools updates information gathered in a similar survey made in 1966. After a brief analysis under the general headings of FLES, secondary school language offerings, enrollment, materials, advanced levels, and language laboratories on the inferences of the findings, there is a reprint of a sample survey with collated tallies. Two appendixes list districts offering FLES, German, Greek, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, and Russian, (AF)

OVERVIEW: A TALE OF TWO SURVEYS

In December of 1968, I undertook the preparation of a survey of Foreign Language instructional programs on Long Island. This project was commissioned and subsidized by the FOREIGN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION OF CHAIRMEN AND SUPERVISORS (FLACS).

The last survey of this type was completed in March of 1966. The purpose then, as now, was to help keep our profession informed about FL programs, methods, schedules, enrollments, and trends on Long Island.

Has the picture changed in these three years? Yes.

Although comparisons are often misleading, certain changes in emphases and trends leap from the pages in their desire to be recognized.

On the negative side, these changes include:

fewer Language Laboratories

fewer Advanced Placement Programs lower enrollments in German, Hebrew, Latin, and Russian

On the positive side, they include:

higher total enrollments in FL

more extensive programs leading to longer language sequences

The tallies shown in this report represent 60 School Districts, the Diocese of Brooklyn, and 3 Parochial high schools. (Total: 64)

Were we perfectly made, therefore, the total number of tallies for any given item would be 64. However, some respondents did not complete every item.

This report is developed in this way: first, I have tried to generalize about the results; then, I have reprinted a sample survey with the collated tallies; following that, I have listed, in Appendix A, the names of those Districts offering FLES; Appendix B lists, for quick reference, where you can find German, Greek, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, and Russian.

Brief analysis and inference of findings

FLES

The FLES movement has not grown significantly. From the 14 programs (See Section I) reported in 1965-66, the current total is 15. (Since 1963,4 Districts have discontinued FLES; 5 have introduced it). Where it has been discontinued, the chief reasons given are lack of funds and lack of qualified personnel.

> There is no appreciable difference between the mechanics of the instructional program (languages offered, material, minutes per week, etc.) from the previous survey to the current one.

SECONDARY SCHOOL-Every District reported offering at least French and Spanish. those Districts not offering FLES, the practice is to offer language beginning at the 7th Grade. Four Districts plan to add one language each (German, Hebrew, Italian, Swahili)

(See Section

LANGUAGE

IIA)

Seven Districts plan to delete one language each (Latin-5; Russian-2)

Two additional Districts will abridge their Latin programs.

Three School Districts are to be congratulated for taking the initiative in their selection of language offerings. In each case, these are the only Districts where these languages are offered:

Cold Spring Harbor is currently offering a course in Greek under the direction of the District Supervisor, Mr. David Kaplan.

Garden City offers a 2 year course in Japanese under the supervision of the high school chairman, Mr. Daniel Perkins.

Long Beach is planning to offer a course in Swahili for the 1969-70 school year. The course is being planned by the Language Coordinator, Mr. Wolfred Margolies.

These programs are unique on Long Island and certainly have our admiration and best wishes.

ENROLLMENT

A greater percentage of the total school population is enrolled in

(See Section

FL classes since the previous survey:

II B)

1965-66:56%

1968-69:64.1%

French and Spanish account for 88.9% of the total language enrollment. Enrollment in the other seven languages offered on Long Island is lamentably low:

]	 1965-66	1968-69
GERMAN	7.1%	4.9%
GREEK	0	less than 1%
HEBREW	2%	less than 1%
ITALIAN	2%	2.4%
JAPANESE	0	less than 1%
LATIN	8.3%	2.5%
RUSSIAN	1.8%	less than 1%

MATERIALS (See Section

II C)

A-LM (Harcourt, Brace and World) dominated the instructional materials used in 1966. 75% of the Districts still use A-LM, but the publication of the revised edition will apparently change this picture significantly.

There is no apparent trend, however, to any other instructional series.

(See Section

IV)

ADVANCED LEVELS It has become almost standard practice to offer instruction at least through Level 4 French and Spanish. Other Languages do not fare so well.

> However, there has been a severe decline in the number of Advanced Placement Programs. Since 1963, 28 (!) Districts have abandoned APP in all languages. This decline in APP has been partially offset by the growth of District-prepared Level 5 courses.

LANGUAGE LABORATORIES

Districts are becoming more and more disenchanted with Language

(See Section V) Laboratories. In 1965-66, 85% of the Districts had Labs; in 1968-69, the figure is 51%. Survey respondents were lavish in their comments placing the blame not on the educational weakness of the Labs, but on their District's unwillingness to support an adequate maintenance program. They report that their teachers lost confidence in the Lab when they repeatedly found it inoperable.

It is additionally significant that of the 31 Districts reporting a Language Laboratory, only 11 answered Yes to the question, 'Do you have a successful Language Lab program?"

The additional items on the survey are self-explanatory and, in my judgment, no editorial comment is pertinent.

total	48,045

C. Materials:

1. A-LM: Do you currently use A-LM? Yes 46* No 15

If yes, are you planning to:

a. Retain the current edition 21 or b. Change to the revisal edition 10 or c. Change to a different program 6 or d. Evaluate all of the current program 18 or e. Undecided 6

*This figure does not include the following partial use of A-LM.

Level I only - 1
French & Spanish only - 1
not in Spanish - 1
'Fast' track only - 1
not used in German - 1

2. Other Programs:

What "integrated" program, other than A-LM, do you use?

Dale & Dale (D.C. Heath) - 5
Holt, Rinehart program - 4
McGraw Hill (Learning French (Spanish) The Modern Way) - 3
Chilton Series - 2
Ginn Series - 2

— (4 Districts reported using a variety of text materials)

3. Do you plan to continue with the above program?

Yes 8 No 4
Possibly 1
Change from Holt 3
Change from Chilton 1

III. What are the "ingredients" you are looking for in FL materials?

High degree of motivation - 11 Meaningful and extensive audio lingual drills - 8 Cultural material that really reflects the people of the country whose language is studied 7 Good audio-lingual approach with early introduction of reading Good audio-lingual approach with early introduction of writing -Integrated materials for at least 3 levels Drills for Language Laboratory Illustrations that do not portray stereotypes 3 Attractive texts Good teachers manuals Reading material and illustrations that are of current interest -(41 additional ingredients not mentioned above were requested by 1 District each)

IV. Advanced Levels:

A. Do you have a level 4? Which languages (s)

French	60
Spanish	59
German	14
Latin	10
Italian	4
Russian	3

B. APP Programs

- 1. Do you have an APP program? Yes 9
- 2. Which languages are offered in APP?

French - 9
Spanish - 8
German - 4
Latin - 4

3. Do you have a special course subsequent to Level 4 which is not APP? Yes 19

French V -20 Spanish V -19 German V - 2 French VI - 1

Comments: The following comment was made in more or less the same words by  $\underline{10}$  respondents.

The Audio-lingual approach and the APP are incompatible. We cannot do justice to the former and still prepare students for the rigorous reading required by APP. District-prepared level 5 courses are more meaningful.

V. Language Laboratory

Α.

- 1. Do you have a Language Laboratory? Yes 31
- 2. If yes, what type is it?

Audio-Active - 19 Autio-Passive - 7 Portable - 2

3. What make is it?

Califorie - 12
MR I - 5
Monitor - 4
Sonocraft - 4
(others - 1 of each)

4. Do you have a successful Language Laboratory program?

Yes - 11 No - 15 Yes & No - 5

5. Comments:

Laboratory program ineffective because of poor maintenance - 14
Glad we gave it up - 6
Teachers have little confidence in Laboratory - 6
Tape recorder in each room is better than Laboratory - 6
Laboratory periods should be scheduled in addition to five regular classroom periods - 3
Program is better since it was opened on a library basis - 2

VI. Chairmen, Supervisors, Coordinators

Please give the names, titles, and school addresses of those who are charged with Foreign Language Supervision in your District:
